Stub's Joke of the Day

The farmer drove his mother-in-law to town in his pickup. She said, "This is bumpy." He said, "This is honest. The road is bumpy. The pickup is honest about it." She said, "Marketing is wasted on you."

Today in Farm History - First USDA crop insurance pilot 1938

On February 16, 1938, USDA's first federal crop insurance pilot opened for wheat farmers - 165,000 policies sold in the first year. The pilot lost money for 9 of its first 10 years before reforms in the 1980 Federal Crop Insurance Act turned it into the modern Revenue Protection program. Quiz Answer

(c) 10,000 muskets. The principle - identical machine-made parts assembled by less-skilled labor - became the foundation of the McCormick reaper factory (1847), the Deere plow works (1855), and every farm-equipment factory since.
